About the Speaker:

Linda Classen is a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) and a well known and respected expert on Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD). She specializes in counseling with parents and consulting with teachers and other school personnel nationwide using both one-on-one and seminar formats. In addition, she is in demand as a valuable liaison in specific case situations with physicians, psychologists, attorneys, and mediators. She has been interviewed on a number of radio talk shows and handled the public's ADHD questions. She founded the Austin Chapter of Ch.A.D.D. (The National Association for Children and Adults with Attention Deficit Disorders). Ms. Classen served as an elementary school teacher for five years before becoming a member of the Austin ISD Visiting Teachers Program and specializing in the ADHD field. Ms. Classen has a Master of Education Degree in Counseling and Guidance from Texas State University. She is licensed by the Texas State Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors. She received her Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Texas at Austin where she specialized in Elementary Education. She is listed in Who's Who among Human Service Professionals.
